Service hours will be provided during timeframes chosen by you and your team. You can affect service availability by pre-planning. Changing/Adding Services within EPI

Service changes will be handled on a case-by-case basis. - Any appropriate openings are then relayed to the IDT. The person served may be added to a waiting list if no openings are available.
- A change or transfer to another service may require a new or amended Individual Service Plan, authorizing service plan and discharge (for more information please see Discharge and Transfer Policy).

Process for Appeal and Grievances (Right to Appeal)

It is hoped that as issues/concerns arise, they will be discussed with EPI staff as soon as possible in order to come to a resolution and prevent an escalation of the problem. Should a person served or his/her representative have any concerns as to his/her care, policies, procedures, or any staff action, the following steps should be pursued:

1. For the community service department; the process for appeals or grievances will be explained at the time of admission and reviewed annually thereafter. At this time the procedure will be acknowledged with the signature of the person served, legal representative (if applicable) and EPI representative. A copy of the signed document will be provided to the person served and legal representative. For children enrolled in the Hawkeye Community Development Center, the process for appeals or grievances are explained at the time enrollment.
2. The complainant or representative will bring written issue(s) of appeal and/or grievance to the person's first supervisory staff, unless s/he is a part of the issue or is unavailable. If this is the case, the matter moves to the next step. The supervisor receiving the complaint will respond to the concern within five (5) working days and document the complaint and response in the tracking system.
3. If the issue remains unresolved, the appeals process may be used. If the issue has not been resolved with the person's first supervisory staff, the complainant or representative may appeal within seven (7) working days to the appropriate Director. The Director will answer the complainant or representative in writing within five (5) working days. A copy of the appeal letter and response will be filed in the Executive Director's office.
4. If an acceptable solution is not obtained, the complainant or representative has five (5) days to appeal the decision to the Executive Director. The Executive Director will meet with the complainant or representative and may include other EPI employees in the meeting. The Executive Director will make the final decision on the matter. The Executive Director will do further investigation and render a decision within ten (10) days of the appeal being set forth. This step is final.

5. Failure on the part of the agency to respond at any stage automatically moves the complaint to the next step.
6. At any point during the process, the complainant or representative may elect to remedy the situation with an external source such as a commission, a local, state, or federal agency, legal counsel or independent advocate. When this is done, the process will be discontinued and all correspondence will occur through the legal counsel for Exceptional Persons, Inc.

EPI shall not discriminate or retaliate in any way against any individual who is or has received services, who in good faith, exercises the right to appeal regarding his/her services, past or present.

Americans with Disabilities Act, Accessibility, Assistive Technology

The goal of the ADA, accessibility efforts and assistive technology is to help you live as independently as possible while being an important and valued member of the community. As part of EPI's commitment to accessibility, EPI has an Accessibility Committee to identify and remedy accessibility issues both within our organization and community so you can have full access to an array of services and activities. Staff are trained annually on how to identify and report accessibility barriers. EPI can also assist you in obtaining and using assistive technology which may help you to live your life more independently. For more information, talk with your Program Manager, staff and support team about the options available.

PROTECTING YOUR RIGHTS ~ KNOWING YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

EPI has policies and procedures to help you learn and exercise individual rights and responsibilities. Trained personnel will promote and protect your rights through advocacy and due process.

EPI acknowledges you are protected by federal, state and local laws as are all citizens of the United States unless court orders by a judge limit rights in some way. You can expect to receive documentation regarding your rights and responsibilities upon start of service and annually thereafter.

Universal Precautions/Infection Control

EPI has an exposure control plan and staff are trained annually. Staff will help you learn about ways to protect yourself and others from infections and illnesses, which may include good hand washing techniques and housekeeping. Additional training will be provided to you based on your needs or requests. Copies of the exposure control plan are available on request.

Conflicts of Interest

EPI has policies and procedures in place to help prevent conflicts of interests. However, conflicts may happen. A conflict of interest is anytime EPI employees use their position to get special treatment or favors. The person may be getting something from you directly (like a gift) or getting something because of their relationship with you (like money from selling you something). If a conflict of interest happens, EPI will work with you to resolve the issue.

This notice will tell you how we may use and disclose protected health information (PHI) about you (including to your funder). Protected health information means any health information about you that identifies you or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify you. In this notice, we call all of that protected health information, “medical information.”

In addition, it will tell you how to complain to us if you believe we have violated your privacy rights. If you have questions regarding your protected health information, or would like to request information on

Each time you are served by our organization, a record of our service is made containing health and financial information. How EPI May Use and Disclose Medical Information About You

We use and disclose medical information about you for a number of different purposes. Each of those purposes is described below.

- For Treatment

We may use medical information about you to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and related services by both us and other health care providers. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, hospitals and other health facilities who become involved in your care. We may consult with other health care providers concerning you and as part of the consultation share your medical information with them. Similarly, we may refer you to another health care provider and as part of the referral share medical information about you with that provider. For example, we may conclude you need to receive services from a physician with a particular specialty. When we refer you to that physician, we also will contact that physician's office and provide medical information about you to them so they have information they need to provide services for you.

- For Payment

We may use and disclose medical information about you so we can be paid for the services we provide to you. This can include billing a third party payer or other state agency, or your insurance company. For example, we may need to provide the Iowa Medicaid Enterprise information about the services we provide to you so we will be reimbursed for those services. We also may need to provide the state Medicaid program with information to ensure you are eligible for the medical assistance program.

- For Administrative Operations

We may use and disclose PHI about you for our day to day administrative operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run our organization and make sure that you receive quality services. For example, these activities may include quality reviews, medication reviews, licensing, business planning and development, and general administration activities. We may also combine health information about many individuals to help determine what additional services should be offered, what services should be discontinued, and whether certain new treatments are effective. Health information about you may be used by the administrative offices for business development and planning, cost management analyses, insurance claims management, risk management activities, and in developing and testing information systems programs. We may also use and disclose information for professional review, performance evaluation, and for training programs. Other aspects of health care operations that may require use and disclosure of your health information include accreditation, certification, licensing and credentialing activities, review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical review, legal services and compliance programs. Your health information may be used and disclosed for the business management and general activities of the organization including resolution of internal grievances, customer service and due diligence in connection with a sale or transfer of the organization. In limited circumstances, we may disclose your health information that identifies you so that the health information may be used to study health care and health care delivery without learning the identities of the consumers. We may disclose your age, birth date and general information about you in the organization newsletter, on activities calendars, and to entities in the community that wish to acknowledge your birthday or commemorate your achievements on special occasions.

We may also provide your PHI to other service providers or to your funders to assist them in performing their own operations. We will do so only if you have or have had a relationship with the other provider or funder. For example, we may provide information about you to your funder to assist them in their quality assurance activities.

- Business Associates

There are some services provided in our facilities through contracts with business associates. Examples include outside attorneys and a copy service we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information

- How We Will Contact You

Unless you tell us otherwise in writing, we may contact you by either telephone or by mail. We may leave messages for you on the answering machine or voice mail. If you want to request that we communicate to you in a certain way or at a certain location, see, “Right to Receive Confidential Communications” of this Notice.

You and your legal representative, if any, will sign a Release of Information, allowing specific information to be released. We also may use or disclose medical information about you to notify, or assist in notifying, those persons of your location, general condition, or death. In the event of your death, we may disclose to any of those persons who were involved in your care for payment for health care prior to your death, medical information about you that is relevant to that person’s involvement, unless doing so is inconsistent with any prior expressed preference of you that is known to us.

If there is a family member, other relative, or close personal friend that you do not want us to disclose medical information about you to, please inform your Program Manager or Coordinator or tell our staff member who is providing services to you.

- Disaster Relief

We may use or disclose medical information about you to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts. This will be done to coordinate with those entities in notifying a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or other person identified by you, of your location, general condition or death.

- Right to Receive Confidential Communications

You have the right to request that we communicate medical information about you to you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you by mail or at work. We will not require you to tell us why you are asking for the confidential communication.

ENDING SERVICES

ENDING EPI SERVICES

If EPI is no longer able to meet your needs, the following will occur:

1. Team meeting:

Your Program Manager/Service Coordinator/Employment Specialist will facilitate a team meeting to plan for the permanent or short-term discharge from services. If ending services is anticipated to be permanent, EPI personnel will work with Case Management/Care Coordinator and other team members to identify alternative service options and will assist with the coordination of referrals as appropriate. If service ending is anticipated to be short-term in nature, EPI personnel will ensure communication continues with your team and current service providers during the time you are absent from EPI services. Releases will be signed to allow EPI to share information with other agencies and/or hospitals as appropriate.

2. Referral and recommendations will be documented:

If ending service is anticipated to be permanent, your Program Manager/Service Coordinator/Employment Specialist will prepare a final service summary which will include recommendations for future services. Copies of the completed summary will be sent to you, your legally responsible party, family, Case Manager/Care Coordinator, and other team members as appropriate.

Ending service is defined as the following:

The voluntary or involuntary termination of all agency services

If at any time you become ineligible or choose not to receive services, EPI staff will provide information to you about alternative services available.

On occasion, EPI recognizes persons served may choose to change or discontinue services on a voluntary basis. In those instances, EPI staff will support and assist the persons served to transition as necessary. When a person served no longer meets the criteria for their current services, or there are changes in the services (i.e. change in level of care), EPI services may be ended involuntarily. Immediate termination of services may be necessary when the health or safety of the person served or others may be in imminent danger. In those cases, EPI will make the decision who will be terminated and will adhere to all regulatory standards that apply.

Involuntary End of Service

Your services may be involuntarily ended for the following situations:

1. Medical reasons: This will be based on your needs and determined and documented in your record by the attending physician.
2. Behavior determined to seriously threaten your social, emotional, or physical well-being or other persons served/staff: Evidence your welfare or the welfare of others is seriously jeopardized must exist. This information will be documented in writing by the Program Director and/or Program Manager/Service Coordinator/Employment Specialist and will include specific information to support this determination.
3. Non-payment of service costs
4. Ineligible for service
5. Failure to participate in authorized services
6. Dysfunction of the team

Two Weeks prior to ending services of agency (or as soon as possible if unplanned), a written notice notifying you and your planning team of the involuntary end of service will be mailed. The written notice will include the agency's appeal procedure, the reason for the discharge, and the effective date of discharge.

Voluntary End of Service

1. If you wish to change to a different service within the agency, you should make staff aware of your desire. Every attempt will be made to facilitate such a change with the support of the planning team. Such changes will also be dependent on service availability.
2. If you wish to voluntarily end agency services, you should inform staff of your desire. If you agree to a meeting, you and your interdisciplinary team will meet to develop a plan to end services. Appropriate notice, generally not less than 10 days, is expected in the event you are voluntarily ending services. A 30 day notice is preferred.
3. EPI shall not refuse to end service or transfer you when you, your physician, family, or legally responsible party requests a transfer or end of service.

PERSON CENTERED INDIVIDUALIZED SERVICE PLANNING

THE PERSON CENTERED PLANNING PROCESS

EPI endorses individualized person centered planning which facilitates self-determination regardless of disability. You are the leader of this process. The Person Centered Plan is designed to support you in gaining skills to become more independent, engage in community life, control personal resources, build personal relationships, seek employment, improve health, achieve person outcomes and experience the same quality of life as someone without a disability. EPI's person centered planning produces the Individualized Service Plan (ISP), which is directly linked to the authorizing service plan by the funder.

During this process, your Program Manager/Service Coordinator/Employment Specialist and Service Plan Specialist will talk with you and others who know you well to get a picture of how you want to live today and create a map of what you want for your future. Your ISP will be developed prior to services beginning and then annually thereafter. Annual meetings are called ISP meetings.

At first, EPI will talk with you and complete assessments to get information about:

- what you like and dislike
- how you want to live your life
- what you do well
- areas in which you want or need support to live the way you choose
- how you let others know what you want and need
- how you learn new things
- what assistive technology you currently use and whether additional technology would be beneficial
- risks you may have to yourself, independence and/or health

Next, your Program Manager/Service Coordinator/Employment Specialist and Service Plan Specialist will assist you to set up an ISP meeting with all of the people who will help you with your plan as well as anyone important to you. Some of the people you may want to invite include:

- your case manager/care coordinator
- your legally responsible party or family members
- a person from your day program or residential program
- your EPI program manager/service coordinator/employment specialist, integration specialist and/or group leader and/or direct support professional

At the planning meeting, EPI will share the information you gave during your assessment, develop a plan and decide who will be responsible for each part of your plan. After your meeting, the service plan specialist will write down all of the information you talked about, the goals you decided to work on and the supports you requested. Within 30 days, a written copy of your plan will be available.

How progress on service goals will be communicated with you

Your progress will be reviewed with you regularly. Changes to your plan can be made at any time you and your team decide. These changes will be reflected in an addendum or modification.

PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT

EPI is committed to providing quality services to you. EPI values and is committed to using your input to evaluate and improve our services. Every year, you, your family, and other members of your team will be given the opportunity to complete a satisfaction survey to gather comments and opinions on EPI services.

A performance and annual report which provide a summary of programs and services are available upon request.

ENSURING HEALTH AND SAFETY

EPI has a responsibility to make sure you are healthy and safe according to industry standards. You also have the right to make choices about how to live your life and about the kinds of risk you take. Sometimes this creates conflict when a decision you make impacts your health and safety or the health and safety of others.

EPI will support you in making decisions by:

- giving you information to promote and establish informed consent
- offering you safe and healthy alternative choices in line with your personal preferences
- encouraging you to make decisions in your best interest
- establishing knowledge of health and safety standards
- making agreements with you regarding limitations of your rights

You have a responsibility to help EPI maintain healthy and safe services by reporting any issues or concerns to staff and participating in regular safety reviews. During these reviews, staff will work with you to identify any safety issues and make a plan to fix the problem.

When your ISP is developed, EPI will look at health and safety issues and help you develop a Safety/Crisis Plan. This plan identifies what you need to do and who you can get help from in emergency situations. This will be reviewed with you according to your plan.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

EPI has created emergency procedures to better prepare you and your staff for emergencies. In certain places of service, formal drills will be conducted specific to type of emergency. Within the community, you can expect to review safety and evacuation procedures with your staff so you understand what to do in the event of an emergency.

Emergency Response System

Prior to you receiving services, a Safety/Crisis Plan will be developed outlining natural and professional support available to you in the event of an emergency situation. Staff will review your Safety/Crisis Plan with you on a regular basis as part of the routine supports offered to you. In addition to the more individualized systems developed for you, the following broad supports are included:

- In the event of life threatening emergencies, you are encouraged to call 911 or notify staff to call 911.
- If staff are present at the time of emergency, they should remain with you until the arrival of emergency personnel.
 - In the event you require transport to a hospital, staff may proceed to the emergency room to provide support to both you and medical personnel as soon as possible
- A supervisor is available 24 hours per day, seven days a week by cell phone. In the event that Program Director support is necessary, the supervisor will contact the director on your behalf.

MEDICATION MANAGEMENT

EPI staff are certified as medication managers. If you take medications EPI will ask you, your team and doctor if you need help with managing them. If you need an EPI staff to manage your medication, staff must follow medication management rules for administering medications accordingly.

EPI encourages you to assume as much responsibility as possible for your personal medications. You will work your team through a formal assessment process and with your physician to determine the level of staff support necessary, if any, for you to safely and accurately take medication(s). EPI employees required to store, handle, or administer prescription or over the counter medications shall do so in compliance with the standards of care involved in medication administration. EPI will be in compliance with all applicable local, state and federal laws pertaining to medications and controlled substances.

Your ISP addresses the amount of support needed for you to understand and follow doctor's orders and medications prescribed to you, including dietary restrictions.

Medication management support is not offered within EPI Supported Employment Services.

BEHAVIOR SUPPORT

EPI believes all people should be treated with dignity and respect. EPI emphasizes prevention, intervention and non-physical methods for managing interfering behavior. EPI will focus on teaching you responsible behavior to support living the life you want.

Your ISP will include individual goal(s) and crisis strategies which direct staff on what to do if negative behaviors interfere with functions of daily living. The basic guiding principle for behavior intervention is the least restrictive alternative possible. EPI staff will not provide behavioral restraints.

EPI staff are trained on positive behavior support annually. This training encourages and teaches the importance of relationships and respectful communication through affirmation and other techniques.

EPI DAY HABILITATION SERVICES

BACKGROUND

EPI began providing day habilitation services in 1995 with the opening of the CHOICE Program. In 2015, an additional day habilitation service option was made available to support persons with mental illness. Day habilitation at EPI is community focused where individuals have the opportunity to grow, develop, and increase independence as the result of participating in activities. Those involved participate in activities designed to develop community ties through the meaningful effort. Activities meet one or more of the following criteria:

- giving back to the community
- increasing stamina
- increasing community integration

Unlike many traditional adult day services, EPI's day habilitation service is primarily a "program without walls." All involved participate in the community where they develop relationships, skills, abilities and an improved sense of personal value. This community-based approach is designed to address your individual needs and allows you to give back to your community through volunteerism and meaningful activities. While attending day habilitation at EPI, you should expect to:

- Develop a daily routine with options and flexibility
- Improve the skills you need for future success in your community and/or workplace
- Expand social skills in a variety of settings
- Identify what activities you enjoy and build relationships with members of your community
- Have a regular option for something to do on days or times when you are off work if you are already employed

Although day habilitation is not required before you access employment services, this experience will allow you to explore many different environments and activities to help you determine what type of job you may be interested in if you desire to work.

The unit of service is fifteen minutes (1-16 units) or a full-day (17+ units).

EPI RESPITE SERVICES

BACKGROUND

Parents of children with special needs were instrumental in initiating EPI's Respite program in 1989. These parents approached Exceptional Persons, Inc. with a plan requesting staff, training, and supervision support for the program. Through staff efforts and initial funding through the County Board of Supervisors and the Council on Disabilities, the Respite Program emerged. The program provides services for families where a member(s) has been diagnosed with mental disabilities, physical disabilities, significant developmental delays, or behavioral difficulties.

Respite care services give temporary relief to your family/usual caregiver from the daily routine of caring for an individual with a disability. All necessary cares the usual caregiver would provide to you during that time period are offered during Respite. 'Usual caregiver' refers to the person or persons who you live with who are available on a 24-hour-per-day basis to assume responsibility for your care. The purpose of respite care is to enable you to remain within your family/caregiver home. Individual Respite opportunities are available. Respite CANNOT be provided when your primary caregiver is working.

LOCATION AND HOURS OF SERVICE

Respite services may be provided in your family/caregiver home or within the community. Services will occur as scheduled by you and EPI to meet your needs and can include varied timeframes, including overnights when necessary.

Severe Weather

The ability to provide one-to-one services may be impacted by weather conditions. One-to-one care will not be available in severe inclement weather. Staff will try to reschedule if at all possible.

Holidays

Respite services are not provided on the following holidays:

New Year's Day

Memorial Day

Independence Day

Labor Day

Thanksgiving Day and the day after

Christmas Day

ABSENCES, ILLNESS OR INJURY

If you are going to be late, picked up early or absent for any reason, you should notify EPI in advance. If you are ill, have a fever, are vomiting, have diarrhea, etc., you should not access respite services and should stay at home for at least 24 hours after symptoms are gone. If you become ill while participating in respite, your primary caregiver will be contacted to return home/pick you up as soon as possible. If you are thought to have a contagious condition such as head lice, ringworm, strep-throat, etc., your primary caregiver will be asked to seek a medical opinion prior to returning to service. You must be on medication for a contagious condition for a minimum of 24 hours and a doctor's release may be required prior to your return.

If you are hurt while receiving services, staff will administer First Aid as appropriate and notify your primary caregiver within the same day. If necessary, 911 will be called and staff will accompany you to the hospital and remain with you until your primary caregiver is able to arrive at the hospital.

EPI should be notified of any communicable diseases (flu, strep, etc.) which may impact staff or other individuals with whom you contact during services. You and your caregiver should advise staff you have injuries/communicable illnesses and reschedule services.

If you remain home from school or day program because of an illness, then staff will not be able to serve you. If you are home from school or day program, because you are suspended or if had an appointment then service can be provided.

NO CANCELLATION POLICY

Exceptional Persons, Inc. implements a "No cancellation" policy, which guarantees service delivery in the event the assigned agency staff need to cancel service delivery for any reason. If assigned staff needs to cancel, they will notify their supervisor and/or on-call administrator to report absence. Alternate trained staff will be assigned to the scheduled shift when approval has been given by your family/usual caregiver. If arrangements for a replacement are unacceptable with your family/usual caregiver, the service time will be rescheduled whenever possible.

TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITY COSTS

Primary caregivers will be responsible for reimbursing transportation associated with activities. Transportation is not part of the service. Arrangements for reimbursement should be made between the primary caregivers and staff.

On a regular basis, you will have opportunities to participate in community activities. Because funding is not available for you to do community activities when receiving respite services EPI strives to find activities at low or no cost. On most occasions you will be responsible for the cost of activities.

If community activities are planned outside of the Black Hawk County area, caregivers will be notified in advance. You must have a release signed in order to participate in activities outside of Black Hawk County.

EXPECTATIONS DURING RESPITE SERVICE

When attending Respite services, it is your responsibility to treat other participants with respect and dignity. Any items you choose to bring with you to Respite are your responsibility; EPI may hold items for safekeeping when requested but does not maintain responsibility for those items or items you keep on your person during services. If you cause harm or damage to another person or property, your continued participation with EPI's Respite services will be reviewed. If necessary, a behavior program may be developed and implemented. In some circumstances, it may be necessary for your services to be adjusted until the unsafe behavior is no longer used. If unsafe behaviors continue in a manner that impacts the safety of you, others or property, you may be discharged.

Stealing/Property Destruction

It is the policy of EPI that should you willfully destroy or steal property which belongs to EPI, staff, other individuals, or your employer, you will be subject to natural consequences. DURABLE HEALTHCARE EQUIPMENT

The use of durable health equipment often lets people remain in or return to their own homes rather than move into a more expensive or restrictive setting such as a nursing home. That's why EPI works hard to provide critical health equipment to families without health insurance.

Equipment is loaned at no cost for as long as needed -- two months, two years, or a lifetime. Access www.episervice.org for information regarding available equipment or to make an equipment request.

CHILD CARE RESOURCE AND REFERRAL

It's a timeless question asked by expectant parents around the nation, "Who watches your children while you're at work?" Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) of Northeast Iowa can give you a listing of in-home and center providers, plus much more.

Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) of Northeast Iowa is a program of EPI. CCR&R of Northeast Iowa is one of five regional providers of which makes up Iowa Child Care Resource & Referral. This community-based program lends a helping hand to people who care for and about children. You can visit CCR&R's website by going to: <http://www.neiowachildcare.org>

GETTING SERVICES EPI DOESN'T OFFER

EPI works cooperatively with many other service agencies. If you or members of your team feel you can benefit from services not provided by EPI (i.e. evaluations, health care services, counseling, educational services, etc.), your program manager can assist with referrals to obtain these services. Information for some of these services may be accessed through links on the 2-1-1 website at www.211.org

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE OR BENEFITS FOR WHICH YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE

You may be eligible for assistance from a variety of state and federally funded programs, some of the programs you may qualify for:

SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY (SSDI):

Social Security Disability is a federally funded program that pays benefits to individuals who have worked and then become disabled or to the disabled child of a retired, disabled or deceased worker. Depending on the amount of SSDI you receive you may also be eligible for SSI benefits.

Community Service Handbook

2017, 07.2019, 05.2020, 12.2020, 03.2021

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME (SSI):

Supplemental Security Income is a federally funded program that pays a benefit to people who become disabled but have not worked enough to be eligible for SSDI benefits or if the person was disabled as a child and the parents are still working. The amount of money you will receive in SSI benefits depends upon how much other income you have and how much you have in total resources.

STATE SUPPLEMENTARY ASSISTANCE (SSA):

State Supplementary Assistance is money paid through the State Department of Human Services to help a qualified person pay for the costs of living (room, board, and maintenance) in a licensed group home. When a person moves into a licensed group home EPI applies for this benefit and it is paid directly to EPI from the State.

MEDICARE, PART A & B:

A two-part, federally funded medical insurance program for people who receive SSDI. Benefits start either at retirement or two years after the determined start date of a person's disability.

Part A covers in-patient hospital care, skilled nursing care, home health care, hospice care, and blood products. This coverage is provided at no cost to you.

Part B covers medical expenses, such as physician services, in and outpatient medical and surgical services and supplies, physical and speech therapy, diagnostic testing, durable medical equipment, etc. You must pay for Part B coverage. This cost is deducted from your SSDI check each month (unless you qualify to have this amount paid by Medicaid). Medicare does not cover the entire cost of these services and you can expect to pay a part of the costs of any care you receive.

MEDICARE PART D PRESCRIPTION DRUG COVERAGE:

Medicare prescription drug coverage is insurance provided by private companies that cover both brand-name and generic prescription drugs at participating pharmacies in your area. Everyone with Medicare is eligible for this coverage, regardless of income and resources, health status, or current prescription expenses.

You will pay a monthly premium, which varies by plan, and a yearly deductible. You will also pay a part of the cost of your prescriptions, including a co-payment or coinsurance. Costs will vary depending on which drug plan you choose. If you have limited income and resources, and you qualify for extra help, you may not have to pay a premium or deductible. You can apply or get more information about the extra help by calling Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) or visiting www.socialsecurity.gov.

MEDICAID BENEFITS (TITLE 19):

This is a medical insurance program for low income and/or disabled individuals. All persons in Iowa who are receiving SSI benefits are automatically eligible for Medicaid benefits. Others may qualify based on income and resources. This insurance provides coverage for all basic medical, dental, chiropractic, vision, and prescription needs. There is no cost to you for this coverage, but there may be a co-payment for medical services.

MEDICAID FOR EMPLOYED PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES (MEPD):

Medicaid for Employed People with Disabilities (MEPD) is an insurance program that allows people with disabilities to work and continue to receive Medicaid. To qualify, you must be disabled, be under age 65, and earn income from employment or self-employment. You may be required to pay a small monthly payment for this insurance based on your income.

MEDICALLY NEEDY BENEFIT:

This is a medical insurance program for persons who do not qualify for Medicaid because of “excess income”. The Iowa Department of Human Services uses a formula that looks at your income and assets to determine eligibility for this program. If you are eligible for this program you will have a set amount that you are required to contribute each month toward your medical costs before Medicaid benefits start.

HAWK-I:

The Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) services is offered through Healthy and Well Kids in Iowa program, also known as hawk-i. Iowa offers hawk-i healthcare coverage for uninsured children of working families with incomes too high to qualify for Medicaid, but too low to afford private family coverage. If a family’s income meets certain guidelines, and the family does not qualify for Medicaid, the uninsured children may be eligible for coverage. Hawk-i is a low cost or free health insurance, depending on your family income.

FOOD STAMP PROGRAM:

The Food Stamp Program helps low-income people buy the food they need. The Iowa Department of Human Services runs the program through their local offices. People who receive SSI are automatically entitled to receive food stamps. For other individuals, DHS will determine if you are eligible based on your resources and income.

NORTHEAST IOWA FOOD BANK:

The Northeast Iowa Food Bank was created in an effort to reduce food waste and meet a need for emergency food. Food is donated to the food bank through a variety of different local and regional sources. The products are then distributed to qualified non-profit organizations. Their programs include:

- Backpack Program – In collaboration with local schools, provides eligible children with backpacks full of food items to take home over weekends and holidays.
- Cedar Valley Food Pantry and the Mobile Food Pantry – Provide food and grocery products to households in Black Hawk County.
- Elderly Nutrition – Provides nutritious food to older Americans living on a tight income, who are already accessing Social Security, Food Stamps, retirement funds, etc.
- Kids Café – An afterschool meal program which not only provides snacks and meals for children, but also a safe place to go after school.

LOW-INCOME HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (LIHEAP):

The heat assistance program helps qualifying low-income Iowa homeowners and renters pay for a portion of their primary heating costs for the winter heating season. The assistance is based on household income, size, type of fuel and type of housing.

RENT REIMBURSEMENT:

Iowa residents renting a home/apartment may be eligible to file a claim for reimbursement of rent paid. If you receive services through Home and Community Based Services (HCBS), you may also be eligible for additional rent subsidy.

SECTION 8 HOUSING ASSISTANCE:

The Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Program provides low-income households with the opportunity to live in safe and decent rental housing at an affordable rent. The Program will pay a portion of the monthly rent payable by a low-income household enrolled in the Program. The payment amount is determined by the characteristics of the household and its income. Application can be made through the local housing authority.

OTHER ASSISTANCE:

There may be other public assistance programs you qualify for – the above list includes programs common to individuals receiving EPI services. Visit the 2-1-1 website at <http://www.211.org/> for links to other resources.
