Thank you for thinking of EPI

Thank You for Your Donation

A gift-in-kind is a non-cash gift of physical property or service. Examples of gifts-in-kind include, but are not limited to books, supplies, equipment, artwork, and furniture.

In order to be tax deductible, the IRS requires gifts of $5,000 or more to be accompanied by a formal third-party appraisal and the IRS form 8283 completed by a registered appraiser and signed by the Communications & Development Director. It is the responsibility of the donor to obtain the appraisal and IRS form.

Please note: Exceptional Persons, Inc. (EPI) and Exceptional Persons Foundation are prohibited by IRS regulations from establishing monetary values for gifts of real or personal property. Donations may be tax deductible in keeping with IRS regulations. Please consult your personal tax advisor for details and with questions.
